

Do you think it's important to keep a promise?	What is something you feel too old to do?
What is the most significant problem facing the world?	What is something you can do to help the unpopular kids feel accepted?
If you only had 5 more years to live would you change anything about your life?	What the best way to spend a rainy weekend?
Whom would you call (outside your immediate family) if you had an emergency at 4 AM?	Tell about a reward you've received that you liked.
How do you act when you get stressed?	If you could master one instrument what would it be?

march
 CONVERSATION STARTERS

These conversation starters are the perfect way to get your kids—even those teenagers—to start talking. You can use them around the dinner table, in the car, before bedtime, at school, or even for family reunions.

Instructions: Print and cut out questions. There's one for each day.

Something no one knows about me is ____.

What makes a house a home?

Would you rather live in the city or in the country?

Which is more important: What you say or how you say it?

Which language would you like to speak fluently?

Do you believe in luck or hard work?

What would be in your pot at the end of the rainbow?

How many slices of pizza can you eat in one sitting?

How do you know when you can trust someone?

What was your most embarrassing moment?

What is your favorite work of art and why?

How do you feel when you are home alone?

If you found ten dollars on the street, what would you do with it?

If you had a secret power what would it be?

What qualities do you think makes a good parent?

Would you ever want to be in a movie?

What was the last thing you cried about?

What song would you sing at karaoke bar?

What is your favorite type of donut?

What is your favorite board game?

